

Published based on Ann Arbor Dog Trainers: Dog Heart Rules!

Ann Arbor Dog Trainers: Dog Heart Rules!

Sadie Dog

If you are in need of specialized, one on one dog training for you and your dog in Ann Arbor, MI, John Spieser of DogHeart is the one to choose. John Spieser has helped over 700 Ann Arbor families with dogs learn how to build a relationship of trust between dogs and owners that allows your dog more freedom as it learns to respect and follow your verbal commands.

John, through his company, DogHeart, offers in home evaluation to understand any issues you might be having with your dog as well as understanding the environment from a dog's perspective and how that may impact your dog's behavior.

During this session, the trainer evaluates how the dog behaves in its environment, first hand in order to develop a strategy specific to your dog and your lifestyle that works for both of you. DogHeart realizes that every dog is different and respects that difference and therefore can develop training specific to you and your dog's needs.

After this evaluation a specific plan is developed that you can practice with your dog which strengthens the human-canine bond and develops your dog into a respectful member of the pack. Your dog will have fun and you will enjoy the practice too, knowing your really cool dog will even be more awesome as his behaviors improve. View their website here DogHeartA2.com for more information.

The best way to contact DogHeart is by phone to set up an initial evaluation (734) 222-0655.

Search for Ann Arbor businesses in the Directory Of Ann Arbor, MI.

You can also find this article published on Ann Arbor Dog Trainers: Dog Heart Rules!, and on the tag pages ann arbor dog trainer, Ann Arbor Dog Training, dog trainer, dog training, dogheart, john spieser.